DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 1) The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
- 2) Claims 73 – 116, 119 and 123 – 155 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Zhang '733, '360, or '426 in view of Yamazaki '636.

The previous rejection still applies. The claim limitations do not structurally distinguish over the prior art where in Zhang '426 a field mobility of a NOS transistor is disclosed. The particular field mobility of a NOS transistor claimed is inherent in the prior art or would have been routine experimentation for one of ordinary skill seeking to maximize device function.

Response to Arguments

- 3) Applicant's arguments filed 4-30-2001 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments regarding the grain boundaries of the crystallized semiconductor film are unconvincing in view of the teachings of Zhang who specifically teach the same laser irradiation process of the semiconductor layer and therefore must create a crystal structure identical to that which is claimed. Applicant's arguments are unconvincing over the teachings and suggestions of the applied art. Therefore, the rejection is proper.

Conclusion

- 4) THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
